This Intellectual Property Rights Policy states the policy of the Committee on Operating Rules for Information Exchange (“CORE”) of the Council for Affordable Quality Healthcare, Inc. regarding ownership of intellectual property rights in any operating rules that CORE may develop. This Policy applies both to activities within CORE and to any joint activities that involve CORE with other entities, associations, and the like.

All members of CORE, in order to participate, agree to comply with this Policy. In addition, by participating in CORE’s operating rules activities and/or contributing to the process, each person participating or contributing agrees on behalf of himself or herself and/or the organization he or she represents to the terms and conditions of this Policy. (Any such individual participant or participating organization is referred to in this Policy as “Participant”).

1. CORE may use and incorporate into the operating rules any and all elements, ideas, and information contributed, submitted, or disclosed by the Participant with respect to the operating rules, and permission for the use of such elements, ideas, and information is granted by the Participant to CORE.
2. CORE owns any operating rule that it creates and all proprietary rights in the operating rule. As owner of the operating rules, CORE may reproduce, modify, display, perform, publicly disclose, distribute, and otherwise use the operating rules in any manner.
3. The Participant retains ownership of any individual elements, ideas, and information it contributed and is free to use those elements, ideas, or information independently of the operating rules.
 - (a) The Participant agrees to notify CORE at the earliest reasonable opportunity if the Participant becomes aware that the development or use of the operating rules is likely to cause infringement of any patent, trademark, copyright, or other rights (collectively referred to as “IP Rights”) of a third party or that the Participant controls.
 - (b) The Participant agrees to refrain from asserting or enforcing any IP Rights that it controls against infringing activity of the operating rules by CORE or any third party that develops or uses the operating rules if the infringing activity is caused by the development or use of the operating rules.
 - (c) The Participant agrees to grant to CORE and any and all users of the operating rules a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable license to implement, use, copy, modify, and distribute any Participant contributions to the operating rules.
5. The Participant waives confidentiality in its contributions to the operating rules, such that neither CORE nor any other participant assumes any confidentiality obligations.
6. The Participant acknowledges that, in the event of the Participant’s termination of its membership or participation in CORE, this Policy shall survive and will continue in force and effect with respect to any contributions made up to the date of termination.
